

THE "TERESE L. WALTON" SCHOLARSHIP
Scholarship Application

Terese L. Walton is a 35-year veteran and trailblazer of the public and affordable housing industry. Her broad experience in housing policy and operations and real estate and community development have touched housing and redevelopment agencies throughout the country in such areas as New York, Indiana, Illinois, Michigan, Florida and Louisiana. With all her success, Walton has never lost focus on her purpose for serving. Her calling involves those who are sometimes 'written off' by society because of their zip code. She serves, in her own words, "to improve the lives of residents, and assist them in reaching their maximum potential."

In her selfless service to the families of Richmond Redevelopment and Housing Authority, she recognized the potential of youth living in public housing and the need and their desire to continue their education beyond high school. As a result, Walton is the founder of RRHA's "Open House in the "Village" celebration.
